

Port Lincoln High School

SENIOR SCHOOL

Stage 1 TRIAL EXAMINATIONS, WEEK 6, TERM 4, 2018

EXAMINABLE SUBJECTS

- There is an exam for each Stage 1 Subject that has an end of year exam in Stage 2. Trial Examinations are compulsory, provide you with exam experience and form part of the subject recommendations for 2019.
- No other time will be allocated to examinable subjects during this week, you will only attend the exam.
- A report for your exams will be released on SEQTA during week 8 of Term 4.
- Please note that written exams will occur at the Port Lincoln Hotel. You will be required to be there at least 15 minutes prior to your exam.
- Students will remain in their exam for the entire time allocation (90 minutes).
- Year 10 students studying Stage 1 subjects will complete their Stage 1 exam/block session at the same time and venue as the other Stage 1 students.

NON EXAMINABLE SUBJECTS

- Each Non-Examinable subject will have a 1 ½ hour block session at school to continue the learning for the subject. This will not occur during times that affect your examinations and will be in your normal classroom. Most of these sessions go through normal break times, please be prepared for this.
- There will be no other time allocated to Stage 1 subjects during this week.

ADDITIONAL EXPECTATIONS FOR STAGE 1 STUDENTS DURING WEEK 6 Term 4

- While expected to be present at exams/blocks, you will also be able to use the senior study space for supervised quiet study if you wish. This will be open during the usual class times.
- Students are expected to use the sign in/out procedures during the week if they attend school.
- Students who are at risk of non-completion of Maths or English in Semester 1 will be expected to be in the study room unless at an exam or attending a block session. You will be informed of this during week 5.
