

Publication of Student's Photo

Consent Form – Child

Permission to use likeness, image, voice, performance and/or creative work of students and children.

Background

The Department for Education (DfE) develops teaching, learning and promotional materials and publishes them in print and digitally. Increasingly students are publishing their own materials on websites such as the school website, DfE website, Scootle™ and iTunes™ or other online environments.

Request for Permission

The DfE seeks permission to use the following:

- media (photo/film/audio recording) in which your child appears
- a written comment made by your child
- your child's work samples (for example, a painting, written work, podcasts).

Granting Permission

By completing and returning this permission form, you are granting permission for the DfE to use:

- an image or recording of your child which appears in a photo, film and/or audio recording to publish on paper and/or on websites under a CC-BY -NC licence*
- your child's work samples on paper and/or on websites under a CC-BY-NC licence*
- an image or recording of your child which may identify your child by first name and/or school only
- work samples created by your child without identifying your child - or identifying your child by first name and/or school only

Note:

- Not every item for which permission is granted will be used
- Media, comments and/or work samples might not appear in exactly the form in which they have been submitted
- Media, comments and/or work samples which contain images of or references to Indigenous people will be accompanied by warning text to indicate that the work may include references to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people who have passed away:

- The material will be available to 'the world' to download and use under a CC-BY-NC licence*. This licence is perpetual (forever), irrevocable, free, worldwide, non-exclusive and allows for the replication, distribution, display, performance and remixing of copyrighted work for non-commercial purposes, provided that the author is credited

The agreement is valid for the duration of the student's enrolment.
